ACTION OF SEATTLE JUDGE IS SCORED BY FRANCIS HENRY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23.—Denouncing the action of Federal Judge Hanford of Seattle, for arresting editors of the Seattle Star and others who protested against one of his rulings, Francis Henry, San Francisco's graft prosecutor, today issued the following statement:

"The recent trouble between the people of Seattle and Federal Judge Hanford is a powerful argument in favor of the recall of the judiciary. The Seattle case is fatal. It strikes not only at our boasted free speech but the freedom of the press as well. Here we have a judge against whom the people protested. He had repeatedly given remarkable decisions in favor of corporations, and finally when he granted an injunction to a street car company restraining the people from even asking for transfers, although the state supreme court had decided they were entitled to transfers, the people arose and denounced him in a gigantic mass meeting.

"It must be remembered that only a short time before this same judge had enjoined the same people from exercising their right of American citizens to recall their mayor, who was notoriously in alliance with the tenderloin and gambling element. This ridiculous injunction was set aside by the United States Court of Appeals. The Seattle Star had fought for this recall and had also fought the battle against the street railway corporation. After the mass meeting two editors of the Star and six speakers were arrested on a charge of "conspiracy to obstruct justice." Their only crime, if there was any crime, was to protest against what they considered an unjust ruling by the court. They had simply the right of every man, woman and child in the country.

"If these men are convicted it means that a precedent will have been established which will permit judges under fire to arrest and punish with jail sentences every one who dares to criticize them. It will be the first step towards establishment of a judicial kingdom, and the placing of judges on a throne where they can look down upon the people and jail them for criticism.

"There is still another phase to this case which is even more dangerous. If this precedent is established it may permit judges under fire to view impeachment proceedings as "an attempt to obstruct justice," and to imprison the leaders of such a movement.

"The Seattle case is one which will be of immeasurable importance not only to every newspaper, but to every man and woman who does not wish to be ruled by the judiciary, without chance of appeal from their decisions."

FOUND RELATIVE AFTER LONG SEARCH OF YEARS

An interesting local case, illustrating the good fortune that occasionally comes to people in old age, is that of a woman for many years well known on the Comstock. Not long ago she was taken sick, and being without funds, was taken to the county hospital for treatment. A communication was sent to her nephew in Peoria, Ill., who is a wealthy coal operator, telling him of his aunt's unfortunate plight. He at once came to this city, and took the aged lady to his home, and will provide for her in comfort and plenty for the remainder of her days. It seems that the family had lost track of the local woman for years, and were rejoiced at again finding her, and being able to provide and care for her

CHANCE FOR VIRGINIA CITY STRONG MAN

Here is a chance for the boys who tugged at the ropes for an hour and forty minutes in the tug-of-war in this city on Labor Day, the Montana team of Tonopah having issued a challenge to any team in the state for $500 a side. The latter team believes that it can out pull any other team in the state of Nevada, but it would have to go some to get away with a Virginia City team with the latter in good training.—Virginia City Chronicle.
